My youngest Daughter Ashley Rademacher graduated from JFK Memorial High School in June. She had a fantastic year, She received her letter for Marching Band, is a participant in all the variation of Band the school had to offer... Marching Band, Pit Band, Concert Band Wind Ensemble, and Jazz Band. She also accompanied the Bands to Washington DC. She sings and also is a part of the Concert Choir, Women ' s Choir and the Select choir. She was chosen for the Central Jersey Select Women' s choir competing against participants from all the schools in Central Jersey. And her choir was awarded the honor of Superior when she accompanied them to Disney World in May, the first time they were so honored. She plans on pursuing her music in college, but her love of helping young children has now become her passion, from volunteering with special needs children via Woodbridge Buddy Ball, she has decided to pursue a teaching career. Even if she didn' t keep me running around for the last 4 years from one concert to another, I would still be very proud of her.

Proud Mom ,
Stephanie Rademacher.

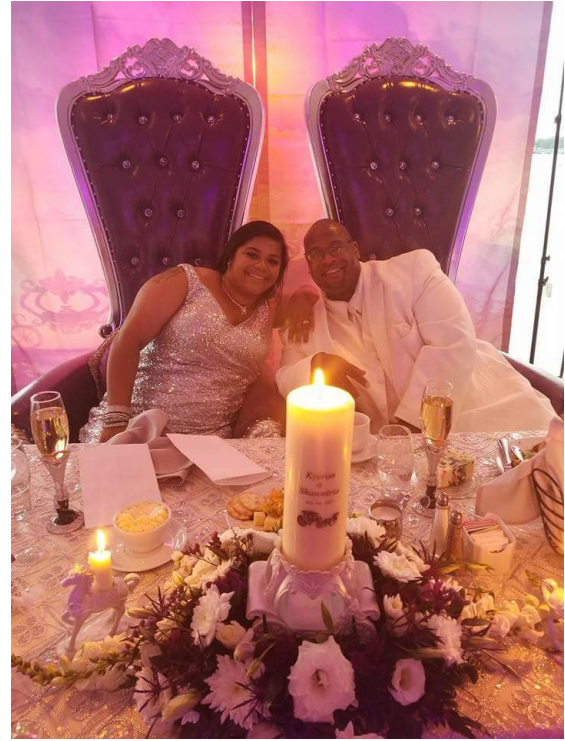

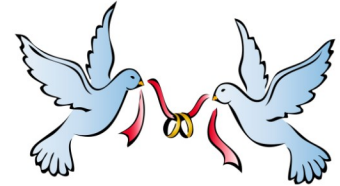

Meet!...
